VESSELS LEAVE FOR UP RIVER

The French Bark Marechal de Turenne Leaves Out—Senator Leaves For San Francisco This Morning—French Bark From Newcastle Arrives, Coal Laden.

The steamer Roanoke came down early yesterday morning and left for San Francisco and San Pedro crossing out at 10:30 a. m. She had a large list of passengers and a full cargo.

The four-masted schooner J. A. Campbell, which arrived here December 5th, from Redondo, Cal., will load lumber at Humes' mill for California.

The Spanish steamer Minerva passed out yesterday at 10:15 bound for Puget Sound. Owing to the large number of grain carriers loading at Portland and the delay in getting her ready for sea which would be consequent on this condition of affairs, she was ordered, on her arrival here, to proceed to Puget Sound to load grain.

The British ship Glenelvan and the British bark Largo Bay went up the river yesterday morning in tow of the Harvest Queen.

The steamer Senator bound for San Francisco came down after midnight and will leave here at 8 o'clock this morning.

The steam schooner Hanaler, loaded with 10,000 sacks of grain and 131,000 feet of lumber, arrived down late Friday night, and proceeded to sea yesterday passing out at 12:40 p. m.

The lighthouse tender Columbine crossed out yesterday morning at 7:30 on her trip to the various light stations.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore left here at 1 p. m. yesterday for Tillamook and passed out at 2:30.

The Oklahoma took the French bark Sully to Portland starting up yesterday morning.

The French bark Eugene Schneider arrived in yesterday afternoon from Newcastle with a cargo of coal and will proceed up the river probably tomorrow.

The pilot schooner Pulitzer left down yesterday forenoon carrying pilots Staples, Layton and Svenson. They will be ready for anything that may make an appearance.

The British bark Gladys, in ballast, from San Jose de Guatemala, arrived in yesterday afternoon and will proceed to Portland to load grain. She was 46 days making the trip.

The British ship Rajore was towed to sea yesterday afternoon by the tug Tautoosh.

The French bark Marechal de Turenne was towed to sea yesterday afternoon, by the tug Wallula. This vessel has been waiting for action on the protest to the fine recently imposed on the captain, and which was remitted on Friday. Immediately on information that the fine was remitted, the vessel proceeded on her voyage.

The Lurline arrived down, last night, at 6 o'clock, with a heavy load of freight and a good passenger list. She left up again at 8 o'clock with a fair-sized load of freight and a good passenger list.

Close Down Hatchery—

The Board of Fish Commissioners have decided to close the Ontario hatchery, the amount of eggs obtained, 500,000, not justifying the expense of operation. The Ontario station is a very expensive one as the water supply has to be obtained with the aid of pumps and water wheels, whereas all other hatcheries have a system of gravity water supply. On account of difference in expense of operation the board has decided to transfer the eggs taken at the Ontario hatchery to the Wallowa hatchery and the propagation will be carried on at the latter place.

ATTEMPT BURGLARY IN UPPERTOWN

SKIFF IS STOLEN AND SCOW DWELLER FRIGHTENS AWAY WOULD-BE BURGLARS—CUT HOLE IN DOOR.

An attempt at burglary was made between midnight and dawn yesterday in Uppertown. At about 1:30 a. m. a scow dweller, residing in the rear of the cigar store of John Orjala, on Franklin avenue, heard the approach of a skiff and on attempting to learn the cause evidently frightened a couple of burglars away. Investigation yesterday morning showed that one or more criminally inclined persons stole a skiff from an adjacent net rack, and rowing to the rear entrance of the cigar store, made an attempt to gain entrance. They cut a small hole in the rear door, near the night latch, but were probably disturbed before they could cut the hole large enough to insert a hand and move the latch. This morning the skiff was found high and dry, the tide having subsided, and was recovered by the owners. There was about $15 in the cash register which the would-be burglars missed. No notification was given the police and no clue to the guilty parties has been obtained.

Portland Knockers—

In conversation with a prominent resident of Portland yesterday the question of the removal of the quarantine station to Fort Stevens was brought up and in response to an inquiry the gentleman stated that the appeal for the removal of the quarantine office of Fort Stevens comes directly from the men who originated the Port of Columbia bill; defeated in that, they would have the quarantine office removed to Portland, if they had the nerve to ask such a thing. The editorials on the subject in the Portland papers sound as though written in the Merchants' Exchange. Why were not the names of the Manufacturers' Association who were present, at the time the resolution passed, published, so the public might know who were responsible? A Merchants' Exchange man and a few mill-men, will not leave a stone unturned to belittle the shipping of the Columbia River, by attacking anything and everything at this end of the river, including the quarantine office and its administration.

The Board Walk at Seaside—

A. G. Long, of Portland, and Mrs. Long, came in on yesterday noon's train and proceeded to Seaside last evening. Mr. Long, who is a member of the city council of West Seaside, was busy yesterday afternoon checking up the assessments for the construction of the board walk along the beach, with Deputy Knutsen in the sheriff's office. The walk has been completed and nearly all the assessments have been paid. Owing to the holidays the property sale, for delinquencies, advertised for yesterday has been postponed until February 1st. In the meantime the property will be re-advertised, there being but a few pieces, and if assessments are not paid by that date, the property will be sold.

May Locate Here—

J. R. Staples, of Couer d'Alene, Wash., is in the city. Mr. Staples is a brother his interests in the Washington city is his interests in the Washington city is looking over this field, with a view of locating here, and investing. Mr. Staples is a progressive and enterprising man and will be welcomed as a valuable acquisition to our community.

Will be Soon Finished—

The foundation of the new Weinhard Hotel is fast approaching completion. It has so far progressed that about the middle of the coming week the work will be completed.
